ABOUT HYDERABAD

THE CITY OF BEAUTY

Hyderabad is known as The City of Pearls, as once it was the only global centre for trade of large diamonds, emeralds and natural pearls. Many traditional and historical bazaars are located around the city. The Laad Bazaar situated near Charminar has shops that sell pearls, jewellery and products such as silverware, Nirmal, Kalamkari paintings and artefacts, bidriware, lacquer bangles studded with stones, saris, handwoven materials in silk and cotton.

LAND

will double the value in ten years

Hyderabad emerged as the foremost centre of culture in India with the decline of the Mughal Empire. After the fall of Delhi in 1857, the migration of performing artists to the city particularly from the north and west of the Indian sub continent, under the patronage of the Nizam, enriched the cultural milieu. This migration resulted in a mingling of North and South Indian languages, cultures and religions, which has since led to a co-existence of Hindu and Muslim traditions, for which the city has become noted. A further consequence of this north-south mix is that both Telugu and Urdu are official languages of Telangana. The mixing of religions has also resulted in many festivals being celebrated in Hyderabad such as Ganesh Chaturthi, Diwali and Bonalu of Hindu tradition and Eid ul-Fitr and Eid al-Adha by Muslims.

About HYDERABAD City

The eternal address of peace

Hyderabad is a melting pot, where both death and life come together. This has a great significance to the all religions all over the world and is believed to be the city where maximum number of people congregates for spiritual reasons. The city has a legacy of 3000 years and prides in its spiritual heritage.

Due to the educational, cultural, spiritual and handicraft related importance of the city, it has gained significance beyond the usual pilgrimage centers. People from all walks of life are flocking to this holy city for reasons apart from pilgrimage, creating the necessity for quality residential that they are accustomed to in more urbanized cities. Even many retired people with spiritual interest are coming to the city with an intention to spend the rest of their life in religious environment. The city is graduating to the lifestyle amenities and luxurious comfort which was earlier considered to be a feature of the metro cities alone.
